BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

SAM PRESTI

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Sam Presti enters his ninth season with the Oklahoma City Thunder and his 15th as an NBA executive. After being named Thunder General Manager on June 7, 2007, Presti was promoted to Executive Vice President and General Manager one year into his tenure with the team by Professional Basketball Club Chairman, Clayton Bennett.

During his eight seasons with the Thunder, Presti has worked diligently to assemble the building blocks for long term success both on and off the court. Dating back to the start of the 2009-10 season, Presti and his staff have watched the Thunder amass the second best record in the NBA (.664; 316-160) during this span (behind only San Antonio).

With Presti at the helm, the Thunder captured four straight Northwest Division Championship before the 2014-15 season and after finishing the 2013-14 campaign with a record of 59-23, the Thunder became one of just two teams to register a winning percentage of .610 (equivalent to 50 wins) in each of the prior five seasons.

Presti's consistent focus has been to utilize the NBA Draft to establish the foundation for sustained success on the floor and in the community. Commencing with the 2007 draft, Presti selected Kevin Durant, the University of Texas standout with the team's No. 2 overall pick. At the conclusion of the 2013-14 season, Durant was named the NBA's Most Valuable Player after leading the NBA in scoring for a fourth time in five seasons.

Other significant draft selections for Presti include taking Russell Westbrook and Serge Ibaka with the 4th and 24th selections, respectively in the 2008 draft. Westbrook has since become a four-time All-Star and this past season he led the NBA in scoring. Meanwhile, Ibaka has gone on to become just the second player in NBA history to lead the NBA in blocked shots for four consecutive seasons (2010-2014). More recently, Steven Adams was named to the BBVA Rising Stars team in each of the past two seasons after being selected by the Thunder with the 12th overall pick in the 2013 NBA Draft.

After moving to Oklahoma City in July of 2008, Presti has stressed the importance of community involvement for both Thunder players and staff. Under his leadership, Thunder players have made more than 1,700 community appearances in and around Oklahoma City. Presti has also made it policy for every new player and staff member to tour the Oklahoma City Memorial and Museum soon after joining the organization.

Under Presti's guidance, the Thunder advanced to postseason play for five straight years (2010-2014) and at the conclusion 2012-13 season, Oklahoma City became just the second team in NBA history (Boston Celtics; 1955-1960) to increase its winning percentage for five consecutive seasons (while maintaining a winning percentage of .700 or better in two of those seasons). Dating back to the 2011-12 season, the Thunder became Western Conference Champions on the heels of the 2010-11 season in which the Thunder became the youngest team in the prior quarter century to reach the NBA's Western Conference Finals.

During the 2009-10 season, Presti's third year at the helm, Oklahoma City experienced one of the largest turnarounds in NBA history. A year after winning 23 games, the Thunder concluded the 2009-10 season with a 50-32 record (.610) and captured the franchise's first playoff berth in Oklahoma City. The 27-win improvement was tied for the eighth largest improvement in NBA history. Presti was named NBA Executive of the Year by The Sporting News at the conclusion of the season.

Presti has been on the NBA's Instant Replay Committee since 2009 and he was selected by NBA Commissioner Adam Silver to serve on the league's Competition Committee dating back to the 2011-12 season.

Prior to joining the Thunder, the 38-year-old Presti held a variety of roles with the San Antonio Spurs. After starting in 2000 as a video intern for Gregg Popovich, Presti moved up through the front office ranks in San Antonio before being elevated to the position of Vice President and Assistant General Manager. As a member of the Spurs, Presti was part of NBA Championship teams in 2003, 2005 and 2007, as well as five division titles.

Presti earned his bachelor's degree in 2000 in communications, politics and law and a minor in psychology from Emerson College in Boston, where he was the first Rhodes Scholar nominee in school history. The Concord, Mass. native served as team captain of the Emerson College basketball team during both his junior and senior seasons. In addition, Presti earned All-Academic honors two times and was twice selected to the Great Northeast Athletic Conference All-Tournament team. He was honored with the Emerson College Young Alumnus Award in 2005. Presti has also completed Harvard University's Continuing Education program on leadership and decision making.

Presti currently resides on the board of the Oklahoma City National Memorial and this past year he served as chairman of the Oklahoma Standard campaign, a movement to raise awareness and honor the way Oklahomans live, built on the foundation of resilience, compassion, consistent acts of honor, service and kindness.

With the support of the Thunder, Presti has established the Forward Thinking Leadership Development Program within the Oklahoma City public schools. Additionally, Presti is actively involved with PeacePlayers International (PPI), a global outreach program focused on bringing children and communities together through the game of basketball. This past year, Presti was appointed to the Civic Center Foundation by Oklahoma City Mayor, Mick Cornett. The Purpose of the foundation is to engage in fund raising activities to help support improvements and maintenance of the Civic Center Music Hall. In addition, Presti serves on the Board of Directors of Shooting Touch, an organization that grants graduating college seniors the opportunity to travel the world and use the platform of basketball to help foster education and influence positive social change in third world global communities.

Presti was recognized as Oklahoma City University's 2012-13 recipient of the Abe Lemons/Paul Hansen Award for Sports Excellence and he also won the Oklahoma March of Dimes Sports Headliner Special Award for 2013.

An accomplished drummer, Presti has produced three music CDs with all proceeds benefiting the Extra Ordinary Needs Fund at Children's Hospital in Boston. Also, Presti established the Keenan Smith-Anthony Halls Scholarship Fund at his former high school, Concord-Carlisle, to assist students with their college tuition.

This past year, Presti and his wife, Shannon welcomed the birth of their first child, Nicholas Rubin. Shannon continues to serve as the Director of Teen Leadership Initiatives for the YMCA of Greater Oklahoma City.

The Oklahoma City Blue will begin its eighth season as the Thunder's NBA D-League affiliate. Originally purchased in 2008 by the Professional Basketball Club, LLC, the Thunder's D-League affiliate played its first six seasons as the Tulsa 66ers before being relocated to Oklahoma City in 2014.

The Thunder has displayed a strong history of utilizing its D-League affiliate and developing both players and staff. Since Oklahoma City entered a single-affiliate relationship before the 2008-09 season, the Thunder has assigned a player to its affiliate 75 times - the most assignments by an NBA team during that span. Sixteen different Thunder players have been assigned in the past seven seasons.

Oklahoma City has been active in "calling up" players from its D-League affiliate. The Thunder has called up a player from its affiliate on 11 occasions since 2008 - the most call-ups between affiliated teams in that stretch.

The Thunder has also utilized its D-League team through developing NBA coaches. The past three coaches of the Thunder's D-League affiliate have received "call-ups" to the NBA ranks. Darko Rajakovic (2012-14) is an assistant coach with Oklahoma City and Dale Osbourne (2011-12) and Nate Tibbets (2009-11) are both assistants with Portland.

Last season, Thunder forward Mitch McGary was assigned to the Blue for eight games, averaging 16.4 points, 7.8 rebounds and 1.1 assists in 24.3 minutes while shooting 49.1 percent from the floor. The Blue team also worked in developing non-Thunder-roster players through its affiliate, with Dwight Buycks and Reggie Williams signing with the Lakers and Spurs, respectively, and Josh Huestis signing with the Thunder following the 2014-15 season.

The Blue will host 24 home games this upcoming season, with 22 games at the Cox Convention Center and a pair of contests across the street at Chesapeake Energy Arena.

MARK DAIGNEAULT

HEAD COACH

Mark Daigneault is in his second season as head coach of the Oklahoma City Blue. In his first season at the helm of the Thunder's NBA D-League team, Daigneault led the Blue to a 28-22 record and an appearance in the NBADL Western Conference Semifinals. Under his watch, the Blue had two players called up to NBA rosters (Reggie Williams and Dwight Buycks) and two Thunder players assigned a combined 10 times (Grant Jerrett and Mitch McGary).

Daigneault came to Oklahoma City after spending his previous four years working under Billy Donovan at the University of Florida, where he most recently held the position of Assistant to the Head Coach. Throughout his four years at Florida, the Gators totaled a record of 120-30 (.800), won three SEC titles and advanced to the Elite Eight each year. In his final season with UF (2013-14), the Gators became the first SEC team to go 18-0 in conference play and went on to win the SEC Championship and advance to the Final Four.

Prior to his time at Florida, Daigneault spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Holy Cross. During Daigneault's tenure, the Crusaders finished as runner-up of the Patriot League Championship in 2008-09.A 2007 graduate of the University of Connecticut, Daigneault served as a student manager with the Huskies under Jim Calhoun from 2003-07. While at UCONN, the Huskies won the 2004 NCAA Championship and claimed three Big East titles, posting a combined record of 103-32 (.763).A native of Leominster, Mass., Daigneault holds a master's degree in sports management from the University of Florida.

RUMBLE'S STORY:

For hundreds of years the tale has been told around Native American campfires. A great herd of American bison was lost in the Arbuckle Mountains during a ferocious storm – the kind only Oklahoma can produce.

Hail fell and tornadoes spun all around the herd as they stampeded, trying to find their way down to the safety of the plains.

One lone bison stayed behind as he helped each of his friends escape down a treacherous ravine. Once all of his friends were safe he began his descent only to find his way blocked by fallen boulders.

Lost, he climbed to the tallest peak; left to face the storm alone and searching for a way down the mountain, he was struck by a bolt of lightning.

The bolt did not destroy him, but, by the power of the god of thunder, changed him. Suddenly, he walked on two legs like a man. He possessed amazing strength and agility – he could jump higher, run faster, think more clearly than any beast.

But because he was no longer just a bison – and yet not a man – he was alone.

With many sightings, the legend grew through the years, of a mighty bison, with remarkable powers, roaming the hills alone.

Not until a group of men who carried similar powers came to Oklahoma City did he find somewhere he belonged. These men also possessed the power to jump higher, run faster, and perform acrobatic dunks more spectacular than anyone in the land. They too carried the roar of Thunder every time they took to the court.

So he joined their team. And the new legend of Rumble was born.

In this role, he oversees all aspects of the team's business operations, driving its emphasis on building community partnerships and creating a first-class fan experience.

After overseeing the moving of the franchise's business operations to Oklahoma City, Barth shifted his focus to the team's growth and development, including overseeing the remodeling of Chesapeake Energy Arena to not only meet NBA requirements, but also to provide a strong fan-focused environment. NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE/ATTENDANCE

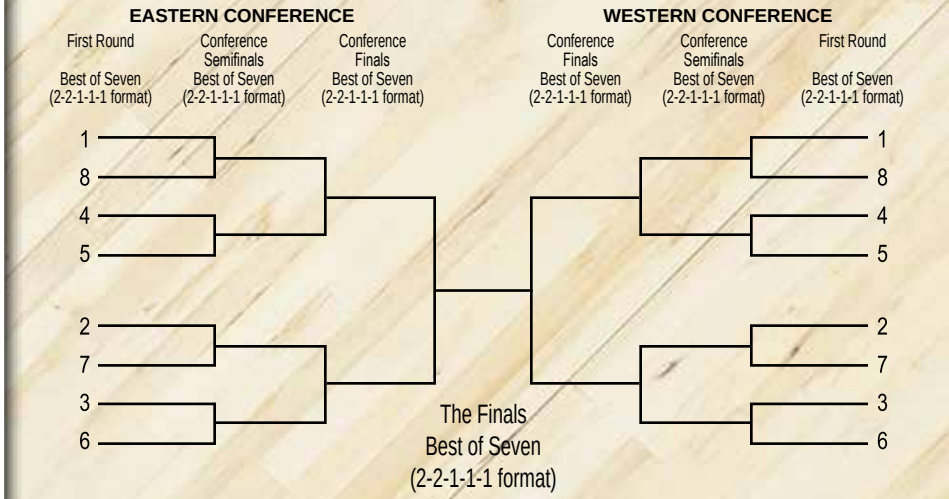
2016 NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE



Eight teams from each conference qualify for the NBA Playoffs. The three division winners and the team with the next-best record from each conference will receive the top four seeds and will be ranked Nos. 1-4 according to their regular-season records. The remaining four teams in each conference will be seeded 5-8 according to their won-lost records. In each round of the playoffs, the team with the better regular-season won-lost record gets the home-court advantage.

All rounds of the playoffs are a best-of-seven series. Each best-of-seven series will play 2-2-1-1-1 format.

INTEGRIS Thunder Development Center

The Oklahoma City Thunder began calling the INTEGRIS Thunder Development Center home just prior to the start of the 2011-12 season. The 53,000 square foot state-of-the-art practice facility features two full-sized basketball courts, a 27-seat team classroom and a hydrotherapy area which was designed to benefit the Thunder's medical and training staff in the prevention and rehabilitation of injuries.

Funding for the construction of the practice facility and renovations to the team's Chesapeake Energy Arena comes from a one-cent sales tax approved by Oklahoma City voters on March 4, 2008. The 15-month tax took effect on January 1, 2009 and ran through March 31, 2010. As part of the lease agreement, the Thunder will make an annual rent payment to the City of Oklahoma City.

During the groundbreaking ceremony in August of 2009, Oklahoma City Mayor Mick Cornett commented, "Having the Thunder in Oklahoma City has been a tremendous sense of pride for our community. When the citizens of Oklahoma City passed the Big League City initiative to renovate the city's downtown arena and build an NBA-leading practice facility, we all looked forward to this day."

INTEGRIS is the official health care provider of the Oklahoma City Thunder.
